

Scenario
2

TALKING TO MY DAD

“I wonder about puberty. I read a book about it and looked at websites. I decided that I was going to talk to my dad about it. I tried several times, but it embarrasses me. I need some tips for talking to him about it.”

What does this person feel?

What are their concern?

What can this person do for reassurance?
What advice would you give them?

Who could this person talk to if they have questions?
