

GROUND RULES

- 1 Raise your hand to speak.
- 2 Use language that is respectful and choose the right words to talk about parts of the body.
- 3 When expressing your opinion and asking questions, don't give names.
- 4 Listen to what other students have to say and respect their opinions.
- 5 You can choose not to answer a question.
- 6 Be respectful of discussion you have had in class.
- 7 Be respectful of other students: don't mock or insult them.
- 8 All questions are valid and welcome. However, the person leading the discussion may choose to answer your questions outside the classroom if it is more personal.
- 9 If you're uncomfortable or confused about some topics or if you have concerns, talk to an adult you trust.
